Senator Evarts has taken the stump in New York, and that means a great deal for the republicans.

Driving a sharp point is making a comparison: Mr. Vilas is willing to give eight cents to his small boy special delivery messenger to carry a letter a quarter of a mile, and five cents to a steamship company to carry one from New York to Havana. And from one end of the country to the other comes a cry from the small boy that he is ill paid.

Excluding Key West, where southern Florida reaches into the tropics, the hottest part of the United States is the lower part of the Rio Grande valley. The hottest point where regular data are kept is Fort Ringgold, which has a mean annual temperature of 73.4 degrees. Next to Ringgold comes Laredo, with 72.6 degrees; and Fort Yuma, at the mouth of the Rio Grande, 72.3 degrees.

In Eau Claire there is a district issue between the board of health and the board of education. A week ago the former ordered the schools closed in order to avoid the spread of diphtheria, over thirty cases having broken out among the children. Yesterday the educational board attempted to reopen the schools, but were prevented by police operating under orders of the mayor and the health board. There is to be a legal contest over the affair, to see which board shall prevail.

Gen. Neal Dow, the prohibition leader of Maine, who has so often contended, contrary to the facts, that prohibition is a success in Maine, now says, in a letter in the New York Post, that, in Bangor, "by common consent of the churches, and the influential people of the city, including parsons and deacons, the grog-shops are permitted to run openly in defiance of the law." This is a confession that prohibition in Bangor practically operates to produce free whisky, just as it did in all the cities of Michigan when prohibition was the law there.

Last Friday night a negro hostler, Harrison Tasker, inveigled a German girl named Huendlend into his room and brutally outraged her. He was arrested Sunday for the crime and Monday morning was taken to court for examination. While the case was proceeding, Herman Huendlend, the girl's brother, drew a revolver and shot Tasker in the body, the ball penetrating the right abdominal wall and producing probably a fatal wound. Before another shot could be fired the infuriated brother was seized by the officials and disarmed. A scene of confusion ensued and the court was adjourned. Tasker was taken to the hospital. The physicians give no hope of his recovery. Huendlend was removed to the custody of the sheriff and lodged in jail.

Two years ago several domestic dogs strayed into the mountains on the head of Wind river, Wyoming Territory, and became wild. They have now increased to some twenty in number and have developed a fierce spirit. They have located in an immense cliff, and from here they issue on their excursions, which are very disastrous to the young stock of ranges, killing and devouring the strongest and most active calves and easily putting down a yearling. A few days ago as one of the employes of the large cattle ranches was hauling hay, his route took him by the "Cliff of the Dogs." As he passed the dens the savage inhabitants swarmed out in full force and made a most determined onslaught on him and the team. It took a wild race of three or four miles to shake them off. In sizing up his injuries the ranchman found himself pretty badly bitten about the face arms and hands, while the horses had suffered on the chest, throat and hams.

Carl Schurz has written a letter declaring that the independents should and will vote for Davenport and the republican state ticket in New York this fall. Mr. Schurz defends this action on the ground that Mr. Davenport has a good character and Mr. Hill a bad character; and that Mr. Davenport represents true reform and Mr. Hill the worst kind of anti-reform. But when Mr. Schurz tries to answer the fact that President Cleveland will himself vote for Mr. Hill, while he claims that the independents support the president, he grows muddled. The fact is that, by voting for Mr. Davenport, the independents support reforms which President Cleveland professed to be in favor of, and which the republican party really is in favor of; but they cannot thereby support President Cleveland, whose acts and vote for Hill prove his professions of reform to be merely professions. On the contrary in supporting the reforms the independents find themselves compelled to support the republican party, because it is now so plainly evident that it is the only party of reform.

The Chicago Journal of last evening: —Chicago elevators, as per official returns, contain 12,698,364 bushels of wheat, 978,981 bushels of corn, 290,522 bushels of oats, 227,221 bushels of rye and 87,886 bushels of barley, making a grand total of 14, 292,934 bushels against 13,529,392 bushels a week ago and 9,268,102 bushels at this period last year. Milwaukee warehouses are stored with 2,873,765 bushels of wheat, 2,064 bushels of rye and 70,898 bushels of barley. New York and Brooklyn warehouses are stored with 9,028,686 bushels of wheat, 698,309 bushels of corn, 2,994,801 bushels of oats, and 90,753 bushels of rye, and 4,529 bushels of barley. Exports from seaboard ports last week included 171,900 barrels of flour, 567,600 bushels of wheat, 946,500 bushels of corn, 267,500 bushels of oats, 4,050 barrels of pork, 6,271,500 pounds of lard, and 5,211,300 pounds of bacon. Visible supply of grain in the United States Canada: Wheat 48,738,976 bushels, corn 4,340,887 bushels, rye 518,145 bushels, barley 1,154,783 bushels. As compared with the figures showing the amount in sight on the 10th, show an increase of 2,021,975 bushels of wheat, 48,669 bushels of corn, 517,435 bushels of oats, 75,037 bushels of rye and 450,580 bushels of barley.

The more one reads about Attorney General Garland's relations with the president, the more he is convinced that he will have to go out of the cabinet. It is not too harsh to say that he has disgraced the country. The truth is, he never should have been appointed. The democratic party has a good many lawyers in it and not a few men who are statesmen; and why a back-woods lawyer should have been appointed attorney general has puzzled the best men in both parties. As a constitutional and political adviser of the president in the cabinet, Mr. Garland is a blundering failure. As a legal adviser of the government he is a still worse failure. If the president appointed him simply because he thought that office should go to the south, it was a mistake, because there are scores of better lawyers, better statesmen, and better politicians in the south. It is to be hoped, however, that a successor to Mr. Garland will be appointed from among the most distinguished lawyers and statesmen of the democratic party, without regard to their being from the south. Such a man as Thurman or McDonald would have avoided bringing scandals upon the administration, and would have been worth something as political advisers to the president. And when Garland goes, his lieutenants Goode and Montgomery must go also, or the country will not be satisfied. All these are tarred with the same stick. The president can not afford to keep such men in office, even if he did not profess "reform;" certainly not while he professes "reform."

The attention of congress is called to the fact that some of the terrible loss of life and property due to tornadoes can be averted. In 1882, Prof. T. B. Maury, asserted what was then the fact, that the prediction of a tornado was a triumph yet to be attained by the science of meteorology. In less than two years from years from that time some predictions of tornadoes were successfully made by Lieutenant John P. Finley of the Signal Service. The percentage of verified predictions is steadily increased by knowledge of the average conditions preceding each series of tornadoes, thus making the predictions more definite and less with each succeeding year. Already the predictions of safety for the day are effective. Of 3228 predictions unfavorable to tornadoes, made in 1884, 3201 were verified, and of 38 predictions that tornadoes would occur made in April and June, 1884, 18 were verified. Of 19 predictions that tornadoes would occur made in June and July, 1885, 15 were generally verified. When tornadoes were predicted, in no instance did violent storms fail to occur, either hurricanes, tornado or hail. The failure of some predictions is doubtless due to the inaccurate and insufficient reports from sparsely settled regions. While it is admitted that nothing like absolute control of these phenomena has been attained, yet the above figures clearly justify the the presence of tornado signals either of safety or danger at every telegraph station in Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri, Illinois, Iowa, Ohio, Michigan Wisconsin, Georgia and North Carolina, especially during April, May, June, July, August and September. It is hoped that congress will direct the signal service to submit estimates of the expense necessary to establish such a system of signals. The cost would be a few thousand dollars for flags or colored discs, and for telegraph service.

Emerald Grove.

—A quiet wedding took place in the home of Loren Cheney, last Wednesday, the 14th inst., the eldest daughter, Rilla L. Cheney, being united to Mr. Robert L. Brown, of Harmony, by the bride's uncle, Rev. W. W. Curtis, home from Japan. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have gone to housekeeping in the home of Mr. Russel Cheney, the bride's grandfather and grandmother having gone on a visit to their son's, Rev. R. L. Cheney, of Prairie du Chien.

—The "matinee" at the west end of town on Sunday last, was no doubt caused by the sudden change in the weather. County Sheriff Hanthorn being telephoned for, appeared on the scene, and took the transgressors to Janesville, where an adjustment was made the next day at the expense of $12.85.

—Farmers in this vicinity are complaining of the rot in potatoes. However, there will be plenty for home consumption.

—Father Chenny and wife took their departure last Wednesday for Prairie du Chien, Wis., where they will spend the winter with their son, Rev. R. L. Cheney

—J. A. Jones and family have moved in their new home situated on the corner of Main and Madison streets.

—Mr. Gilbert Norum is once again a resident of our quiet hamlet having moved in the town last week.

—Hastings has a full line of ladies' and gents' underwear, also a complete stock of gloves and mittens. A good pair of tanned Saranac gloves for $1.00—Call and see them.

—Rev. D. B. Jackson writes from New York city to the effect that he will return in time to be in his pulpit Sunday, October 25th.

FLYING UNDER FIRE.

EXCITING TIMES IN A TOWN IN ILLINOIS.

A Criminal Taken from Jail by Judge Lynch and Made a Target of—The Hunted Wretch Probably Fatally Wounded.

WINCHESTER, Ills., Oct. 21.—Tuesday morning about 2 o'clock the citizens in the neighborhood of the Scott county jail were awakened from their slumbers by a large mob, who attempted to lynch F. H. Holler, who was confined in the jail charged with the crime of assault to kill. The crime was committed on two old ladies, Mrs. McLaughlin and her sister, Mrs. Taylor, during the month of June.

About 1:45 a. m. Deputy Sheriff John Alderson, who lives with his family over the jail, was aroused from his slumbers by a mob of about twenty men in his room, who made a quiet entrance. He was ordered to get up and come out with them. A demand was made for the keys to Holler's cell, which he surrendered. Alderson saw that resistance was useless, so he quietly submitted. They took Alderson down to the cell, which he unlocked. A guard of three men was then placed over him. Alderson told Holler to get up, as they had come after him. The leader told Alderson that they were going to kill Holler in the jail, but they were persuaded to take him outside. They then took him to the door, and were met by about fifty more mobbers, and marched about fifty yards from the jail.

The leader of the mob then advanced a few yards with Holler, and quickly moved to one side and said: "Do you see?" which was the order to fire. The mob failed to comply, when the leader said; "What did you come here for?" Then one of the mob advanced and fired at Holler. Holler then ran toward the jail under fire of the remainder of the mob. He ran back to the jail and called to Alderson, to protect him from the mob, when one of the three men left to guard Alderson presented a shot-gun and fired. The charge passed between his arm and body, inflicting a slight flesh wound. Holler then ran into the garden and hid among the tomato-vines. Hearing some of the mob searching for him, he jumped the fence and ran down the street, and, being in his stocking feet, soon distanced the mob and escaped. The mob, failing to find Holler, quietly dispersed. After escaping from the mob Holler ran to the residence of Mr. Holliday, and asked to be admitted, saying he was afraid Fred Holler had been shot. Holliday refused to let him in, but raised the window and began calling for the police. Night Watchman J. Obermeyer responded to the call. He found Holler lying at Holliday's door in a very exhausted condition. He took him to the office of Dr. W. C. Day, who attended to his wounds immediately. Upon examination it was found that the first shot fired by the mob was the only one that took effect, except the flesh-wound in his breast, the ball striking below the navel cord. The ball passed through the intestines and the upper part of the bladder, lodging in the back part of the hip, inflicting an almost fatal wound. Dr. Prince, of Jacksonville, was telegraphed for, and arrived early in the morning. Prince, aided by Dr. Day, and other doctors, dressed his wounds. They say he cannot possibly recover.

The people are very much excited over this affair, as it is the third that has occurred in the last eight years.

Successfully Resisted a Mob.

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich., Oct. 21.—Michael Porga was instantly killed in a stabbing affray at the Ludington location Monday night. John Norpuss and Peter Beasher were arrested, charged with having committed the murder. During the night a mob of miners broke into the jail with the intention of lynching them. A fight ensued, in which one of the prisoners was badly bruised, but the mob was successfully resisted, and finally driven away without having accomplished its design.

The Toy Pistol Tragedy.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 21.—A distressing homicide occurred at the corner of Central avenue and Perry street, at 7:30 Tuesday evening. A number of boys were playing around the corner, among them Willie Schlenker, aged 10, who lives with his parents at 24 Perry street, and Albert Edgar, whose home is 171 Central avenue. These two were handling a toy pistol, called a "flobert," when young Schlenker playfully pointed it at Edgar and snapped it three time, the last time with loud report, and the boy fell mortally wounded with a bullet through the brain. Willie Schlenker, horrified at what he had done, threw the pistol away and ran home crying. He was found by an officer and locked up at the central station charged with murder.

One More Body Wanted.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A gang of men are still at work clearing up the wreck on the Hackensack meadows, where the terrible collision occurred Sunday night. No more bodies have been discovered, but it is believed that a body will yet be found to which the detached leg belongs, which can not be fitted to any of the bodies now at the morgue. Trains are now running regularly past the spot. The injured at St. Francis hospital, Jersey City, are getting along well, and will all live. Pratt, the telegraph operator, whose error caused the accident, was visited Tuesday by his wife and several friends in his cell at police headquarters. His mental suffering in reflecting upon the consequences of his carelessness seems to be acute. He is excessively nervous.

Wants More Than Ten Millions.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The following report, emanating from Philadelphia, was circulated in Wall street Tuesday: "The Pennsylvania company has offered to advance $10,000,000 for the rehabilitation of the Reading railroad, on condition that the iron-clad agreements respecting tariffs should be adopted by the latter company." At the office of the New Jersey Central division of the Reading railroad Treasurer Watson said that $10,000,000 would not be sufficient to put Reading upon a good basis. He was inclined to doubt the authenticity of the report.

Canadian Crops.

QUEBEC, Oct. 21.—Crop reports from parishes along the line of the Intercolonial railroad show wheat, rye, barley and vegetables to be above the average. Peas are an average crop, and oats are slightly below the average. Hay, buckwheat, fruits and tobacco are poor. Frost damaged wheat, barley, oats, buckwheat, fruits and tobacco.

Closing the Cooper Shops.

DAYTON, Ohio, Oct. 21.—Three hundred coopers struck Tuesday morning for an advance of 2½ cents per barrel. The employers say they will not accede to this demand and the strikers in turn declare that they will allow no outsiders to take their places. Sixteen shops are closed.

Buckwheat Flour,

And we guarantee that all Buckwheat Flour sold from these mills shall be made from Pure Buckwheat, and shall contain no other ingredient.

Our Graham Flour

Is made from thoroughly cleaned, Choice, White Winter Wheat. Graham Flour takes its name from Sylvester Graham, the author of a noted treatise on "Bread and Bread Making." It is conceded that bread made from unbolted or Graham Flour, is more healthful and nutritious than fine, white bolted flour, for the reason that it contains more of the gluten, from which the flesh, bone, brain and tissue of the body is built up and sustained.

The whitest and most beautiful bread found upon the tables of the critical American, contains less of the elements of

STRENGTH, HEALTH AND BEAUTY

Than the dark colored rye bread in Germany, or the heavy loaves found in the knap-sacks of the Russian soldier. Graham bread made from good, clean wheat is very excellent and healthful food. We propose to make and sell this kind of flour.

Corn Meal.

is a staple article of diet in the Eastern and Southern States, and should be more generally used here. Is there a Yankee on the face of the earth, who has wandered so far from the hills of New England, that he has forgotten the baked pork and beans, the rye and the Indian meal bread, or the baked Indian pudding with which his heart and stomach were gladdened during the days of his boyhood. Hoe cake, Johnny cake, mush and milk, corn meal gems, and Indian meal puddings, with pork and bacon, were main articles of diet for the sturdy men and women who subdued and built up the older States of the Union. We offer to the trade, and families, both the bolted and granulated Corn Meal.

Especial attention is called to our

Minnesota Linseed Meal

It is excellent for dairy stock, and horses, when fed with other grain.

THE COMING CONFLICT.

ITS APPROACH SCENTED BY THE TROUBLED ORIENT.

Startling Rumors Keep the European Diplomatic Situation Very Tense—War Almost a Foregone Conclusion with Theebaw the Thug—French Politics.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A London cablegram to The Sun says: The Servian minister in London says that he hourly expects to rceive the news that King Milan has crossed the Rubicon by invading Bulgaria in force. The fever is also spreading beyond Servian borders to the westward. Montenegro scents the coming battle, and is preparing to exert a popular pressure among the inhabitants of Greece in favor of a war of conquest. Many Montenegrin emissaries are secretly at work in Greece, and much of the war enthusiasm lately manifested in that country is the direct result of their machinations. King George and the Greek cabinet are alarmed at these ebulitions of Hellenic patriotism. The king and his advisors do not desire to provoke a real conflict with Turkey, but they have already done so much blustering that they can not consistently turn against the fiery Propagandists from Montenegro. King George is to some extent in the same quandary in which King Milan, of Servia, finds himself. The subjects of both monarchs are clamorous for war. The monarchs know that war with Turkey under present circumstances would be the maddest of rash enterprises, but they also know that there are enough demagogues to lead their people to slaughter and to upset the thrones. The only escape appears to be a union of all the Balkan states against Turkey. Such a union could maintain a desultory war for several months, but the traditional and lifelong animosities among the states make union difficult. Turkey in the meantime is alert, and is again pressing the powers for authority to advance upon Bulgaria. Russia is also intently watching the situation. There is a startling but unconfirmed report that two army corps of Russian troops are assembled at Odessa, ready to proceed on transports to Varna, the chief Roumelian port on the Black sea.

Austria and Russia Inharmonious.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A serious misunderstanding has developed between Russia and Austria in regard to the eastern question. In spite of the efforts of Bismarck and Salisbury to harmonize the two powers, it is authoritatively stated that their relations are increasingly unsettled and precarious, and that negotiations for a fresh conference between the two cabinets have been fruitless, owing largely to Servia's sudden development of a menacing attitude which gravely compromises the chances of a peaceable settlement.

Communications between Bulgaria and Servia, twice opened and twice broken off, have been reopened again on the basis of a union of both countries against Turkey. The actual movements of troops are shrouded in mystery on both sides of the Servian border, a rigid press censorship having been simultaneously established in Servia, Bulgaria and East Roumelia.

Turkey is now declared by the department of war to be in a position to claim her right of occupation as suzerain state over the Balkan principalities, conferred by the treaty of Berlin.

Preparing for the Conflict.

VIENNA, Oct. 21.—The Roumanian government has forbidden the exportation of horses into Bulgaria. All officers attached to the Russian forces at Odessa who are now on furlough have been peremptorily recalled, and no leaves of absence will be hereafter granted.

Sitting Down on King Theebaw.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The British government has given King Theebaw four days to comply with the ultimatum. Interference with the escort bearing the ultimatum, or failure to comply within the period designated, will be accepted by the viceroy of India as a declaration of war, relations will be broken off, and the Burmese fortresses attacked. The expeditionary forces consist of 8,000 combatants, 7,500 men for transport, telegraph, commissariat and other services, and 1,500 men to re-enforce British posts on the frontier. The field column comprises seven battalions of infantry, two batteries of field artillery, two squadrons of cavalry, two companies of mounted infantry, and consists mainly of Madrasse troops officered by natives and British, with a sprinkling of British infantry. The cavalry is native, and the artillery exclusively British.

It is impossible for the messenger bearing the British ultimatum, who left Rangoon Monday, to reach King Theebaw in less than two weeks. Large bodies of Burmese troops have already been sent into the British territory, and it is deemed advisable by the ministry to blockade Irrawaddy with sunken vessels.

Dispatches received Tuesday night say that the Shans, who inhabit the central part of Farther India, and are tributary to Burmah, have risen against King Theebaw and sacked and burned several villages west of the Salwene river. They also attacked the town of Thamnee [probably Theinni] putting the Burmese garrison to flight and destroying the town.

Situation in France.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The crisis in France is passed. A Monarchial success would undoubtedly have precipitated a Radical outbreak, and the results might have justified the fears of the most pessimistic prophets. The strain which would have occasioned such violent action on the part of the most rabid Anti-Monarchists has been prevented by the people themselves, and the peace-loving element of the Republican party, who were really the cause of the consternation, have revised their wholesale attacks on the Radicals and thus forstalled a consequence of their Anti-Radical action which would have been the very thing that they were trying most zealously to avoid. The Republican majority, which is now assured, has dismissed all fears of disturbances in Paris, and the moderate party has won a certain victory and the exclusion of the consummation of the plans of either extreme Monarchist or Radical.

One of the results of this has been that Brisson, Clemenceau, Flouquet and Bert are elected to double seats. The second ballots show that the part of the public who voted the Conservative ticket on the first ballot with the idea of crowding out the violent Radicals by making at least a large and formidable Conservative minority—and thus mark their disapproval of the opportunist policy—took an opposite course as soon as the full result of the elections became evident. They turned square around when it was seen that this policy had nearly restored the monarchy and laid the foundation for a new revolution.

Some cabinet changes are certain, however, despite the victory of the Republicans. M. Grevy only consented to contest the presidency on condition that M. de Freycinet should also become premier in the re-elected administration. M. Grevy intends to soon resign in favor of De Freycinet, thus retiring from the government without causing the commotion and uncertainty which would have resulted from his refusing to head the ticket.

Chamberlain Snubs the Workmen.

BIRMINGHAM, Oct. 21.—Seven hundred unemployed workmen in this city, Tuesday, marched to the residence of Mr. Chamberlain. The chief of police, learning of their intention, and fearing violence, sent a large force of police by a shorter route, and when the processionists arrived at Mr. Chamberlain's house they found it surrounded by policemen. After a consultation a deputation of three of the unemployed men were admitted to see Mr. Chamberlain. They stated their grievances and finally accused Mr. Chamberlain of making a row with the wealthier classes to alienate sympathy for the suffering poor for personal political aggrandizement. Mr. Chamberlain refused to attend the meeting in aid of the distress fund. The men then returned to their place of meeting, howling against Mr. Chamberlain.

Dilke on Liberal Politics.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—Sir Charles Dilke, in a speech Tuesday night, declared that while the Liberals were in favor of entire unity between the colonies and the mother country, the party did not favor the principles of colonial federation, which they believed to be impracticable. He believed that a separate army for the colonies would be much better than the present system.

A Parnellite To Be Prosecuted.

DUBLIN, Oct. 21.—It is the intention of the government to prosecute Mr. Ryne, the Parnellite candidate for parliament in County Waterford, for seditious utterances in a recent speech at Cloumel.

THE ROWDY EAST.

Shocking Conduct of Five Massachusetts Very Young Girls.

LOWELL, Mass., Oct. 21.—The five young girls who were arrested Monday night for drunkenness, made things warm all night by their profanity and ribald songs. They gave their names, ages, and residences as follows: Minnie Grant and Maggie Grant, sisters, aged respectively 13 and 11; Katie Lynch, aged 12; Minnie White, aged 13, and Katie Mullen, aged 12. It appeared that the Mullen girl received $2 Monday morning for work done in a boarding house. She then hunted up the other four girls, purchased two half-pints of whisky at a bar-room, and they walked to an open lot on Pawtucket street. Here they drank repeatedly, and proceeded to walk to Dracut, singing, shouting and causing a general disturbance. They returned to Lowell, and, obtaining a tin pail, bought two quarts of beer, and returned to the vacant lot. This they also drank. Finally their actions became so noticeable and disgraceful that the residents sent for the police. Four of the girls accused the Mullen girl of enticing them away to drink the liquor, but the latter said they accompanied her willingly, and eagerly drank the liquor and beer. The girls were so drunk that they could hardly tell a connected story, and they made charges and counter charges against each other. They called each other the most shocking names, and their conduct was equal to that of the toughest virago that was ever brought into the station.

AVENGED HIS SISTER.

A Decrease of One in the Army of Infernal Miscreants.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 21.—Saturday afternoon Helen Huendling, a young German domestic, was enticed into a room by Harrison Tasker, colored, and, at the point of a pistol, criminally assaulted. Upon releasing herself she jumped through the window, receiving serious injuries.

Tasker was arrested and arraigned for his crime Tuesday morning. As he was being led out of the court-room to jail a young German lad entered with a pistol in his right hand. "My mother is dead," he exclaimed, "and this nigger has ruined my sister," at the same time blazing away at the prisoner. Terror and confusion ensued, a number of women present fainting. The negro was borne away to the hospital, the blood flowing from a fatal wound in his abdomen. Young Huendling was imprisoned.

Blue and Gray Fraternity.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 21.—Tuesday Seward post, No. 57, Grand Army of the Republic, arrived in Richmond as the guests of R. E. Lee Camp No. 1 Confederate veterans. The post numbered about seventy men, and was accompanied by twelve Auburn ladies and twenty-five visitors. They were met at the depot and escorted to the capitol square by R. E. Lee camp, Richmond Light Infantry Blues, and Phil Kearney post Grand Army of Republic. W. C. Carrington, mayor of the city, and W. E. Cameron governor of the state, made speeches of welcome which were responded by Commander Thomas J. Ball of Seward post and Mr. Williams, of Syracuse, N. Y.

Senator Evarts on the Stump.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Senator William Evarts Tuesday evening addressed the first and only grand Republican mass-meeting of the campaign in Buffalo. Four thousand people met at the skating rink, whither Mr. Evarts was escorted by the Republican league. The Hon. James D. Warren presided. Mr. Evarts spoke in an argumentative vein until near the end of his two hours talk when an allusion to "the candidate who was with Tweed" opened the flood gates of his humor. He was given a fine reception at the Genesee house after the meeting. Mr. Evarts speaks but twice more during this campaign: at Syracuse, and just before election in New York.

The Word and the Bullet.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Oct. 21.—Taylorsville, in this county, is intensely excited over the shooting, at 10 o'clock Monday night, of ex-County Commissioner Abe Kyle, a wealthy farmer. Kyle was just about to get into his buggy when a man, whom Kyle stated was Barney McEvenue, approached him, and said, "I intend to kill you for swearing a lie against me," and immediately shot, the ball passing entirely through the upper part of Kyle's body sideways, and lodging in the right shoulder. He then struck Kyle over the head with the revolver. The two had recently had a suit in court, which went against Kyle. No one saw the affair. Kyle is still alive, but can not recover.

Order of Railway Conductors.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 21.—The Order of Railway Conductors for the United States, Canada and Mexico, convened Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock, at the Liederkranz hall. The order was organized in the year 1868, for protection in case of sickness, accident or death. Of the 225 delegates composing the grand division, 160 were present. They represent every state and territory in the United States, Canada and Mexico.

Hunted a Quiet Place to Cuss.

WEST DELHAM, Mass., Oct. 21.—About 3 o'clock Tuesday morning burglars entered the cellar of J. A. French's grocery, ascended the stairs to his house adjoining, unlocked two doors into the store, inserted screw eyes into the woodwork on the other side and made the doors fast thereto with stout wire, drilled two holes into the safe, charged them with powder and touched it off. The safe was blown to pieces and its door thrown completely across the room. The windows and showcases were smashed to atoms. The thieves' reward consisted of $2 in pennies, with which they decamped.

The Beautiful Snow.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—A foot of snow is reported from nearly all parts of the upper peninsula of Michigan, blockading the railroads. There was a light fall at Galena and Monmouth, Ills.

Revolutionary Relics at an Anniversary.

BOSTON, Oct. 21.—The 104th anniversary of the surrender of Cornwallis was celebrated in the town hall at Bedford Monday evening by an assembly of citizens. The town was presented with a copy of the famous Ulster Gazette, containing the account of the death of Washington, which has been in Bedford eighty-five years, also the flag carried to Concord April 19, 1775, by the Bedford Minutemen. The latter trophy was presented by Capt. Cyrus Page, the oldest inhabitant of Bedford. The flag was carried by his ancestors in the French and Indian wars, and had been in the family 147 years.

DEADLY DRUGS

A PHARMACIST CHATS AWHILE ABOUT VARIOUS POISONS.

What the Careful Druggist Never Does—How Terrible Mistakes Sometimes Occur—What to Do Before the Doctor Comes.

[Cincinnati Enquirer Interview.]

"Talk a little while about this, Doc," said the writer the other day, putting a newspaper item into the hands of Dr. Bathinny, vice president of the Kentucky State Pharmaceutical association. It was an account of the recent accidental poising in Hoboken.

"I think I can tell you exactly how that particular tragedy occured," said the doctor. "The druggist kept his sulphate of morphine and sulphate of quinine beside each other in shelf bottles. The bottles were of the same size and lettered in the same general style. Both drugs, you will notice, are sulphates, and they resemble each other very closely in general appearance. Seeing the word sulphate on the bottle, the druggist hastily took it down, filled the prescription and replaced it, without an idea that he had used morphine instead of quinine.

"The careful druggist never puts these drugs in shelf bottles. He keeps them in the original packages in the poison drawer of his prescription case, under lock and key. But where a druggist makes one error his customers make ten, and yet almost invariably you will find that mistaken doses of poisons are charged to fault on the part of the druggist. Let me show you what I mean. What would you call this?"

CAUTION TO THE BUYER.

He produced a paper containing a white powder.

"Baking-powder?"

"No; guess again."

"Cream of tartar?"

"Not any. It is arsenic. I may sell a quantity of arsenic on a doctor's prescription, properly label it, and caution the buyer to be careful in its use, and yet suffer in my good name through having sold it. How? In this way. The arsenic may be taken out of the original package, or the label may be lost, and the drug placed in a cupboard, whence it may be carelessly taken and used by mistake for baking-powder. The result is a case of accidental poisoning. The first question asked in such cases is 'Where was the poison purchased?' Without knowing the circumstances of the case at all thoughtless people at once jump to the conclusion that the mistake was the druggist's. Many a pharmacist's reputation has been blighted in this way, and the evil is so great that our State association has advised that all druggists color arsenic—according to a formula which does not interfere with its properties—before selling it, so that it may by no possibility be mistaken for anything else.

POISONS AND ANTIDOTES.

"Oxalic acid has been taken in a number of cases for epsom salts, which it somewhat resembles, the crystals of the acid being much coarser than those of the salts, however. When it has been taken by mistake the symptoms are unmistakable. They are exquisite pain, violent efforts to vomit, dullness, languor, debility, and finally death without a struggle in a very short time after taking the poison. There is but little hope with this poison; but if an antidote be taken at once it may be effective. Chalk or magnesia mixed with water, and administered in large doses, is the best that can be used; but if not to be had at once whitewash, swallowed in quantities, may serve the purpose of a counteractant.

"In cases where morphine has been taken through mistake for quinine the symptoms will be that of laudanum poisoning, in which drowsiness is the prominent feature. An emetic should be at once administered, such as mustard-flour, followed by copious draughts of warm water, after which all the attention is to be given to keeping the patient awake and in constant motion. Coffee in large and strong doses will often promote wakefulness when other efforts fail.

"Corrosive sublimate has been mistaken for washing soda, and left about within the reach of children; but arsenic captures more victims than all the others.

AFTER SWALLOWING ARSENIC.

"When you have poisoned yourself with arsenic a fetid state of the mouth will be first noticed, followed by continued hawking, constriction of the pharynx and esophagus or throat, hiccough, nausea, inflammation of the lips, tongue and throat, vomiting, thirst and alternations of heat and icy coldness.

"The first thing to be done, in case no emetic be handy, is to thrust a feather, or even a finger, down your throat sufficiently to bring about the desired result. Swallow milk, white of eggs, and water, or flour and water. Follow this with ferric hydrate, which is the best antidote known, in quantities at least twelve times as great as the amount of arsenic taken. The antidote is innocent, however, and may be swallowed in almost any quantity. It should be given in doses of a tablespoonful at a time for adults, and a teaspoonful for children, every five or ten minutes."

REVISING THE GRANTS.

COMMISSIONER SPARKS AND THE RAILWAY LANDS.

A New Method of Fixing the Limits of Grants—How It Will Affect Settlers—Thoman on Reform—Vincent's Case—Capital Notes.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 21.—Commissioner Sparks is having a readjustment of railroad land grants for the purpose of showing in his annual report how much more the railroads have secured than they were entitled to. There is no doubt but most of the land-grant roads have secured lands in excess of their grants, but the statement now being prepared in the land office will make this excess more striking by resorting to a new method of calculating the boundaries of the grants. From the time of the grant to the Illinois Central, the first of the series, down to the present time, the method of fixing the limits of the grant has been to describe a curve at each change in the general direction of the road, not including the minor sinuosities, the radius of which curve is equal to the width of the grant one side of the track, and then connect these curves by tangents, the latter lines being the boundaries of the grant. This method was sanctioned by Attorney General Crittenden in the case of the Illinois Central. The present policy of the land office is to concede to the railroad company not a single inch that can be helped, and to make the excess of lands secured by the railroad companies appear as large as possible a new method of fixing the bounds has been adopted. At intervals along the line of the road perpendicular lines, equal in length to the width of the grant on one side of the track, are drawn, and then the ends of these lines are connected by lines parallel with the road, and these lines are taken to both boundaries of the grant. At every turn in the road this new method cuts off a small, three-cornered piece of land that was allowed to the railroad company under the old method of calculation. This new method of adjustment has been applied in the case of the grant to the Winona & St. Peter railroad, and before it is to be applied any further it will be submitted to Secretary Lamar for his approval, and the right of the government to employ this method will be argued. If this method be approved by the secretary and affirmed by the courts, it will affect the titles of settlers who have bought of the railroad companies lands included in the grants by the old method and excluded by the new, but the settlers can easily protect themselves in their possession. If the right of the government to these tracts is affirmed, the settlers can pre-empt or homestead the lands they are in possession of, or if they have exhausted their rights of homesteading or pre-emption they can buy them of the government at the government's price, and in either case they can sue the railroad companies for what they have paid for their lands.

Cause of the Cholera in Spain.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 21.—Consul Strobel, at Madrid, transmits to the state department the report of Dr. W. T. Van Vredenburgh, of New York, on the causes of the cholera outbreak in Spain. Dr. Van Vredenburgh traveled in Spain during the time of the cholera epidemic, and attributes it almost wholly to the neglect of sanitary precautions in sewerage and drainage, personal cleanliness and intemperate habits and unnutritious and unsuitable diet. To secure immunity from the disease in this country he urges more thorough sanitary inspections and regulations concerning the collection of garbage, disinfection, etc., together with especially careful attention to the maintenance of a pure and healthy water supply.

Thinks the Reform Idea Is Growing.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 21.—Civil Service Commissioner Thoman returned to Washington Tuesday from a tour of examinations throughout the northwest and on the Pacific coast. Judge Thoman called upon the president in the afternoon. He talks freely about his trip, and says what he saw and heard in the northwest leads him to think that belief in civil service reform is growing among the people of that section. The masses of the people wherever he traveled believe the president has taken a firm and proper stand for civil service reform. A few of the politicians here and there find fault with the president's policy; but the people generally applaud his course and conduct enthusiastically.

Republican Political Assessments.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 21.—The civil service commission has addressed a letter to the president calling his attention to the attempt made by the Pennsylvania Republican committee to collect political assessments in the departments, and suggesting the propriety of making an investigation of the matter, with the view of punishing all parties connected with it who can be reached by the law. They say that it is their belief that Chairman Cooper, who is responsible for the begging circular, is not an employe of the government, and therefore can not be reached by the law, and discuss the propriety of asking congress to extend the law so as to cover such cases.

The Case of Belt vs. Belt.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 21.—Hon. Benjamin A. Willis, of New York, who has been in Baltimore representing Mrs. Belt, formerly Mrs. Godfrey, in the celebrated divorce case of Belt vs. Belt, arrived in Washington Tuesday night. To a representative of the press Mr. Willis said: "Our case was concluded Tuesday. Mr. Belt, the defendant, appeared in the circuit court of Baltimore, accompanied by counsel, and submitted proof and pleadings, and his honor Judge Fisher afterward signed a decree awarding Mrs. Belt a separation, and dismissing the cross-bill, the allegations in which were supported by no proof."

Judge Vincent's Case.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 21.—Attorney General Garland told a reporter Tuesday that Judge Vincent was not suspended only because of the Dorsey incident, but that it was a case of general suspension on account of unfitness for the position. A telegram has been received from the judge in which he demands a hearing in his own defense, and is backed by the signatures of a number of the most prominent citizens of the territory of New Mexico without regard to politics. The selection of Dorsey as a jury commissioner is justified on the ground that there was much dis order and it was necessary that men with large interests in good order should select the grand jury.

The Man Who Murdered His Babe.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 21.—John Lyle, of Branford, who was charged, Monday, by his wife with the murder of his 3-weeks-old child, was arrested, Tuesday morning, on the order of the coroner, but was afterward discharged, it being decided that the evidence was insufficient to commit him. The coroner, however, will make his return that the child came to its death by being pulled from the bed by its drunken father.

An End to Bone Scraping

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25 cents per box by F. Sherer & Co.

Mike's Other Gait.

[Harper's Bazar.]

In a down-town restaurant much frequented by bankers and brokers is a surly old Irishman, a waiter, who never by any chance makes a straightforward answer. To plague him, two customers pretended to disagree as to his nationality, and finally one of them referred the matter to him.

"What nationality is yours, Mike?" said the customer. "Are you French or Irish?"

"Sure," said the old man, "no nations is a-quarrelling over me."

Once, when he was especially grouty, he gave feeble expression to his ill temper by moving so slowly about his work that he may be said to have crawled.

"Have you no other gait than that, Mike?" a customer inquired.

"Indeed I have, sir," said Mike; "but it's slower than this."

Wanted to Become a Citizen.

[Chicago Herald.]

There was submitted to the commissioner of Indian affairs a request from a Kiowa Indian studying at Lincoln university, Pennsylvania, to be admitted to citizenship. He was informed in reply that it could be done only by some act of the general government. The fact that Indians are born in the country does not make them citizens.

SKIN AND BLOOD

Diseases from Pimples to Scrofula Cured by Cuticura.

Hundreds of letters in our possession, copies of which may be had by return of mail, repeat this story: I have been a terrible sufferer for years from Diseases of the Skin and Blood; have been obliged to shun public places by reason of my disfiguring humors, have had the best physicians; have spent hundreds of dollars, and got no relief until I used the Cuticura Remedies, which have cured me, and left my skin and blood as pure as a child's.

COVERED WITH SALT RHEUM.

Cuticura remedies are the greatest medicines on earth. Had the worst case of Salt Rheum in this country. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relieved or cured until I used the Cuticura Resolvent, internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, externally.
NEWARK, O. J. W. ADAMS.

HEAD, FACE AND BODY RAW.

I commenced to use your Cuticura Remedies last July. My head and face and some parts of my body were almost raw. My head was covered with scabs and sores, and my suffering was fearful. I had tried everything I had heard of in the east and west. My case was considered a very bad one. I have now not a particle of Skin Humor about me, and my case is considered wonderful.
DECATUR, Mich. MRS. S. E. WHIPPLE.

ECZEMA FROM HEAD TO FEET.

Charles Eayre Hinkle, Jersey City Heights N. J., writes: My son, a lad of twelve years, was completely cured of a terrible case of Eczema by the Cuticura Remedies. From the top of his head to the soles of his feet was one mass of scabs." Every other remedy and physician had been tried in vain.

NOTHING LIKE CUTICURA.

The half has not been told as to the great curative powers of the Cuticura Remedies. I have paid hundreds of dollars for medicines to cure diseases of the blood and skin, and never found anything yet to equal the Cuticura Remedies.

A Song of Gratitude.

In olden times, Bethesda's pool
Was famed for healing all diseases;
Once plunged beneath its waters cool,
Each evil, stain and sickness ceases.

In modern days we find a cure;
Of worth as rare, as much deserving;
A remedy safe, quick and sure,
Dr. Richmond's SAMARITAN NERVINE.

For Epilepsy, Spasms, Fevers, Colics, Cramps,
Coughs, Colds, or any kind of Phthysic
It merits a leader stamp
It far above all other physics.

It goes at once right to the spot
Where lurks the danger, never swerving;
In all the world perhaps there's not
A cure like Dr. Richmond's NERVINE.

As in the blood diseases lie?
Each artery, each vein, each curve in;
There's nothing makes ill humor fly,
Like the SAMARITAN NERVINE.

For old or young, for rich or poor,
Whatever class of life you serve in,
To health wide open is the door,
From the SAMARITAN NERVINE.

Then do you value strength and health,
And think these blessings worth preserving,
Better than all Golconda's wealth,
Is Dr. Richmond's SAMARITAN NERVINE.

—The Riverside rink will open for the season on Saturday evening, October 24. The floor has been ground perfectly smooth and is now in better condition than ever before.

—During the past week the tobacco shipments amounted to 140 cases; 16 to Michigan, 4 to Iowa and 120 to Chicago. Most of this was packed on commission for outside firms.

—There have been no criminal matters before the municipal court to-day, but the case of Street against Carlson is now being heard. This is an action to recover pay for legal services rendered the defendant by William Street, Esq., of this city.

—Cannon's hall was the scene of a pleasant social dancing party last evening, under the auspices of the employees of the Wisconsin Shoe company. There was a good attendance, and everything passed off in the most happy and social manner.

—Last night Mr. Lou Roethenger shipped a carload of heavy draft horses to Marquette, Michigan. He has been buying in this county for several days and takes the animals to Michigan for use in the lumber camps. The horses were beauties and will be a credit to Janesville.

—The autumn party given by the Janesville Concordia society last evening, at their hall in the Mitchell block, was a pleasant success in every particular. There was a good attendance of invited guests, and the Smith & Corliss' orchestra furnished the best of music for the merry dancers. The Concordia society know how to entertain their friends.

—The ladies of the Woman's Relief corps, of W. H. Sargent Post No. 20, G. A. R., who have charge of the banquet and supper for those attending the dance this evening, are just out-doing themselves, and will have one of the best spreads ever presented at a public dance in this city. The party promises to be a most successful one, and well it should be, as the proceeds all go into the relief fund of the G. A. R. post.

—The Evansville Enterprise:—Thos. Morgan, of Cooksville, has been putting up a tobacco shed for Mr. J. K. P. Porter, of that place which is 28 feet wide by 238 feet long. It is divided into 17 bents each 14x17 feet. It is probably the longest complete tobacco shed in the country. Mr. Porter is the man who drew at one time, last fall, $13,220 for tobacco raised on his farm.

—The Janesville Choral Union held their regular weekly rehearsal last evening in the Court street M. E. Church Sunday school rooms. Quite a large number were present and much interest was shown in the work. As Tuesday evening has proven inconvenient to many it was decided to make a change and after this the rehearsals will be held on Wednesday. A concert was spoken of and will be held soon but no date has as yet been fixed.

—As an indication of the extent and importance of the tobacco manufacturing interests in our city, we learn that the H. A. Doty Box company has furnished within the past week the boxes for packing 73,000 cigars, a greater output for the same length of time than has been shown before, and this, of course represents the demands of only a part of our manufacturers, as follows: Sam'l Wyler, 35,000, U. S. Wulff, 20,000, L. M. Stevens, 13,000, Oscar Heber, 5,000. Total, 73,000 cigars in one week.

—Olive Branch Lodge No. 36, A. O. U. W. proposes celebrating with appropriate exercises, the 17th anniversary of the birth of the order, at Cannon's hall on the evening of October 27th. The exercises, commencing at 8 o'clock, will consist of an address by Wm. Street, readings by Mrs. Day, and music by Anderson's orchestra. Dancing from 9:30 to 12 o'clock. Admission to hall free. Dancing fifty cents. Admission tickets may be procured at Palmer & Stevens' drug store, and F. Sherer's drug store, also at the city clerk's office.

—A Beloit special to the Milwaukee Sentinel last evening, says: One of the most exciting political contests which has ever taken place in this city, occurred to-day in the Second ward over the election of an aldermen to fill the vacancy, the candidates being Prof. A. W. Burr, of the college, who was backed by the prohibitionists and democrats, and C. Ingersoll, a high-license republican. The latter was elected by a good majority, and is the first alderman favoring license ever elected in that ward, the stronghold of the prohibitionists of Beloit.

—Rev. Enoch Prouty, inventor of the Prouty printing press, and interested with Rev. W. G. Walker, of Madison, in its manufacture, has fallen from grace in the Baptist ministry. An ecclesiastical council, composed of delegates from the Baptist churches of Beloit, Janesville Afton and Orfordville was convened at Beloit a few days since, according to the custom of the church, and the following charges were preferred against Prouty 1. A lack of business integrity. 2. Falsehood. 3. Desertion of his family. 4. Improper relations with a certain woman formerly a milliner in Beloit. These accusations were supported by the strongest evidence, and the council recommended that the church drop him from their roll, and that he be deposed from the ministry. No defense was offered by the defendant. Prouty lived in Madison at one time, but moved to Beloit four years ago.

Now is the time to buy your underwear. The place to buy it is at Foote & Wilcox's. Scarlet wool from 75 cents up

OBITUARY.

A. WARREN PHELPS.

Shortly after noon yesterday, three days after the runaway accident which caused his injuries, A. W. Phelps, the well known coal dealer, died at his residence, 202 Thirteenth street. His wife and two sons, and a number of intimate friends surrounded his bedside as he passed quietly away. He never rallied from the unconscious condition into which he relapsed shortly after he was picked up from the sidewalk in front of the Exposition building, where he had been hurled by the shock of the collision between his buggy and a runaway team belonging to H. Hirsch.

Mr. Phelps was a native of New York having been born in Fort Covington, Franklin Co., Aug. 11, 1829. Removing west, he settled at Johnstown, Wis., in 1838. The next year he removed to Milwaukee, where be has resided for more than forty-seven years, following the occupation of a coal merchant. He was a member of the common council of this city during the year 1871, and was afterward a member of the school board. He was elected to the legislature from the fourth assembly district of this city in 1874, but was defeated for re-election the following year. On the election of President Cleveland, he was a prominent candidate for the postoffice. He was also prominent in Masonic circles, being a member of Wisconsin Commandery of Knights Templar. A wife and two sons survive him.

The above is taken from this morning's Milwaukee Sentinel. Deceased was well known in this city, and was a cousin of Dr. J. H. Warren, of the third ward.

Personal.

—Dr. J. H. Warren, who has been in Washington during the past two weeks, returned home to-day.

—Dr. Ben Rogers, of Chicago, is in the city among old friends, but will make nothing more than a brief visit.

—Captain M. H. Doty, the popular proprietor of the United States hotel at Edgerton, was in the city to-day.

—Mr. M. G. Jeffris returned last night from Ottowa, Illinois, where he has been as counsel in a case before the LaSalle county court.

—Racine Journal:—Mrs. M. A. Frost, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. D. D. Nichols and other friends, returned to her home in Janesville to-day.

—Miss Lou Merrill, daughter of Hon. and Mrs. Hiram Merrill, returned this morning to her studies in Milwaukee college, after an absence of about ten days.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Umbricht, of Syracuse, N. Y., who have been visiting for some days with Mr. and Mrs. N. Dilzer, of the first ward, this morning started for San Francisco, California.

—Hon. Fenner Kimbal and wife, who have spent the summer among the mountains and along the sea shores of New England, returned last evening. They visited most of the points of interest in the east and come home much improved in health.

—Mr. D. W. Watts, treasurer of the Forepaugh show, having concluded the season's engagement, returned home yesterday, and is heartily greeted by his army of friends. It is said that Dave will be manager at the Riverside roller rink during the winter.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 32 degrees above zero. Clear with southwest wind. At 1 o'clock p. m. the register was 50 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with west wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 60 and 72 degrees above zero.

California and Florida Excursions

Mr. J. R. Berry, and W. J. Bell, managers of "Berry's American Tourist Agency," of Chicago, have arranged with leading trunk lines for a series of special excursions to California and Florida. The details of their excursions are the most perfect and the advantages the best that have yet been offered Pacific or Southern bound tourists. Parties contemplating a trip anywhere will find it to their interest to confer with them. Address, BERRY & BELL, Room 4, Methodist Church Block, Chicago.

I took one bottle of Athlophoros and it cured me of my sufferings from neuralgia. I am now enjoying perfect health and am thankful to the Athlophoros Company for their great remedy for neuralgia and rheumatism. Polina Sweeney, Towanda, Ill.

Medical Men of Distinction

Have been among the foremost to give honor where honor was due in the case of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Abjuring old fashioned professional prejudice, they have frankly borne evidence to its worth as a means of remedying dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious remittent, rheumatism, constipation, liver complaint, debility and renal disorders. With all intelligent people this favorable professional verdict has had its due weight, especially as it was in direct confirmation of that of the people and the press. Far more effectual has it proved than bombastic assertion, too often resorted to by the proprietors of remedies of doubtful value. "The plain unvarnished truth about the Bitters is more than sufficient to convince a skeptic. A family medicine of comprehensive utility, prompt and thorough in action and pure in composition, it stands deservedly first.

The Funeral of Little Mable Leonard.

The funeral services of little Mable Leonard were conducted at the home on South Main street yesterday afternoon at three o'clock, the Rev. C. B. Wilcox, late pastor of Court street church, officiating. He endeavored, by a few well chosen words, to direct the hearts of the sorrow-burdened mourners to the home of God and the angels, and from a large variety of scripture quotations, aptly appled, led them to think of the patient little sufferer as a resident of that better country, where pain and death are unknown.

Mrs. A. O. Wilson, Mrs. C. E. Moseley, Messrs. Bladon and Hayden, with Miss Julie Wilson at the piano, rendered the song service, opening with the old yet always comforting anthem, "Cast Thy Burden on the Lord," and closing with the familiar "Sweet By and By." The singing was very pathetic, and caused to flow in unstinted measure many tears of sympathy.

At the close of the services the casket was conveyed to the Milwaukee depot, and at 4:45, accompanied by the family, started on the long sad journey to Charles City, Iowa, the place of final interment. The bearers were George Simpson, George Moseley, James Wilmarth and George Bliss.

The Gazette voices the sentiment of a host of friends in saying to the bereaved family, we are sorry for you, and would willingly share the burden if within the range of human possibilities. The final separation caused by the relentless hand of death, produces a feeling of utter helplessness and places man at the extreme point of weakness. The comforting thought which comes like a benediction to the empty hearts from which the child life and love have departed, is that no child is ever lost from the home of God. Lost to earth but only gone before.

The Girls' Social Club.

Notice has already been given in our columns of the successful opening of the Girls' social club room. The enterprise is rather new as concerning girls, although such rooms are common among young men. When one thinks of it, the providing of the same kind of a plan for girls and young women that has been considered a necessary luxury for boys and young men, is very natural. However new the idea may be in Janesville, such clubs are not without precedent. Our neighbors in Beloit have sustained a similar, if not identical club, for more than two years, and the success of such rooms in New York has been unusual. Our sister club is not yet a year and a half old and has four hundred members. This year it has rented a basement house, No. 222 West 38th street. The society uses the two lower floors, while the librarian and her family rent the remainder of the house. This society grew from a little meeting of six working girls and a few friends and nothing has ever been done to bring in new members, except to make all who came to their rooms perfectly at home and to see that they had a good time. They have now a Resolve club among the members, whose motto is: "Look up, not down, look out not in, look forward not backward, and lend a helping hand." Its members are anxious to help their fellows, and have paid several hundred visits to sick persons during the hot summer evenings. Always taking a little bunch of flowers, which were sent to the rooms two evenings in each week for the girls to distribute, so they had a little flower mission of their own.

These monthly meetings are held the first Tuesday evening in each month, when the secretary reads the minutes of the last meeting, the treasurer reads her report and the president discusses all matters connected with the society. The dues are also received, 25 cents being the amount each member pays a month. The society has sewing machine classes, singing, where the girls are taught to read music at sight, embroidery and plain sewing classes, and at the girls' request, classes in history, both sacred and profane, have been recently added. These are free to all members of the club or society. By the payment of a small fee, for any number may join the classes in dressmaking, when each member is taught to cut and fit, and give a muslin waist to fit her; millinery, where the girls bring their bonnets or hats, and are taught to trim them; cooking, where useful dishes are taught; a class called "school," where rudiments are taught, and each member presented with a blank book, and learns how to keep accounts. There is also a lady physician at the rooms three evenings of the week. She is paid by a friend, and is of great use to the girls. The society has a large library, and in one room a piano where the girls dance and have a good time.

Since this society was begun there has been ten others started from it, all in successful operation, and there is now a "Working Girls' Society Organization" formed of all the heads of these societies. Its object is to co-operate and find the best way and methods of working getting each society profit by the others experience. Out of town societies are honorary members. The Janesville Girls' social club is invited to become an honorary member of the association.

Nat. Goodwin.

Nat. Goodwin, in his "latest wrinkle," the Skating Rink, will be at the opera house on Friday evening, and those who have not secured their seats, should lose no time in so doing. The Chicago Evening Mail says: "The title of the piece suggested infinite possibilities in the way of fun, and everybody knew that Nat would make as much out of his material as the best. The piece is a jargon after this manner: Ronald Delaine (Nat Goodwin), a speculative young blood, drops in upon a little community for the purpose of opening a rink. He rents a barn of Timothy Tubbs, and fits it up for the purpose, and the second and third acts take place in the rink itself. Mr. Tubbs has a daughter Amelia, upon whom the adventurous Ronald has cast a longing eye, since she is the only heir to her father's wealth, and the two acts at the rink consummate their union. The entire affair is a rollicking burlesque upon the skating rink and its various characteristics, and is very funny. The second act introduces the Fletcher trio in a fancy skating and juggling act which is extremely clever. They also appear at the carnival which occurs in the last act. In the flashy Ronald Mr. Goodwin has infinite opportunities for the introduction of the horse play burlesque for which he is famous.

What One Dollar Properly Placed Did.

Ticket No. 26,820 sold in fifths, at one dollar each fifth, one of which is held in Newton, drew the second capital prize, in The Louisiana State Lottery on September 8. Geo. Jackson, the driver of Wells, Fargo & Co's express wagon, is the lucky man. He is highly elated at his good fortune. One day last week he offered half of the ticket for fifty cents, which offer was not accepted.—Newton (Kan.) Republican, Sept. 18.

THE COUNT IN CINCINNATI.

Some Careless Work by Election Officials —Prosecution of Fine-Workers.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 21.—The official count of the election returns were resumed Tuesday, and the board of canvassers completed Ward Twelve without material change in the total vote. There were a few discrepancies in Wards Six, Seven and Eight. In the returns from precinct F, Ward Nine, was a tally-sheet used by the Duckworth club for collecting the returns, filled with the footings for the different candidates, and formally signed by the judges and clerks of the precinct. The tally-sheets and returns from the precinct, which accompanied the document, were signed on the cover by the judges and clerk, but the inside was a total blank. It was passed without counting. County Clerk Dalton ordered a mandamus to compel the present officials to make a return. Precinct D, Ward Nine, returns were not signed, but the judges and clerk came in about 8 o'clock and signed the defective returns.

In precinct H. of the Twelfth ward, there were neither tallies nor totals.

The Committee of One hundred have received about $8,000 since last Tuesday in contributions ranging from 10 cents to $100. This is an average of about $1,000 per day. All classes are responding to the call for subscriptions to defray the expenses of the committee in prosecuting illegal voters and those who violated the election laws.

In Judge Buchwalter's court Tuesday, J. H. Thompson, Republican judge in Precinct E, Eighteenth ward, swore that the polls were taken possession of by roughs, the check book thrown away, one man voted seven times against his protest, and the ballot-box was broken. Other testimony was given, going to show that fraudulent votes were cast with impunity.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 21.—Clerk Joyce intimates that it is known who altered the tally-sheets of Precinct A, Thirteenth ward, and it is thought that arrests will soon be made. The better class of both Democrats and Republicans are determined that the guilty ones shall not escape.

BEN BUTLER'S SECRET.

He Relates It and It Clears Up a Forty-Year-Old Mystery.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Oct. 21.—Forty years ago a resident of this city named Parker was mysteriously murdered. The affair created a sensation of a year's duration, but was never cleared up, and is remembered only by the oldest resident.

Gen. Butler has revived interest in the case by relating to two Manchester gentlemen a secret which he has kept for years. He says that a client of his named Pierson, who was hung for wife murder, previous to his execution, confessed to him that he killed Mr. Parker because the latter had refused to return him certain money, which Pierson had placed in his hands for safe keeping, or to get it out of the reach of Pierson's creditors. Pierson, after failing to get his money, drove to Manchester from Lowell, called Parker out on some pretext or other, and when the two were on the way to Janesville, killed him with a shoe knife. Gen. Butler was counsel for the Wentworths, who were tried for the Parker murder.

Episcopal Church Congress.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 21.—By the time set for the opening service of the tenth congress of the Protestant Episcopal church of the United States, Tuesday morning, nearly all the prominent clergymen that were expected had arrived. The morning trains brought many people from this and other states. At 10:30 the members of the congress attended the communion service in Trinity church. Rt. Rev. Bishop Neeley, of Maine, presided. Rt. Rev. Henry B. Whipple made an address on "The Holy Communion." After the close of the service in Trinity church the first regular session was called to order in the Carles Opera house by the bishop of Connecticut. Bishop Williams delivered the inaugural address.

Over 3,000 people gathered in Carll's opera house in the evening at the second public session. The venerable Bishop Williams, of the diocese of Connecticut, presided. The topic of the evening, "The Christian Doctrine of the Atonement," was announced. The second writer announced was the Rev. W. R. Huntington, D. D., of New York. While Archdeacon Farrar, of England, who followed, delivered a deeper address, Dr. Huntington's effort was considered by many to be the gem of the evening. He breathed forth is words with impressive eloquence and the audience was carried spellbound to the close.

When the great English churchman was announced the audience applauded vigorously, and at the close of his paper he was repeatedly applauded.

Hon. Malcolm Hay Dead.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct 21.—Ex-First Assistant Postmaster General Hay died at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, of consumption.

Gen. Malcolm Hay was one of President Cleveland's first appointees. Gen. Hay was well known in political circles in New York as in Pennsylvania, and the president knew him personally. At the time of his appointment there were grave fears felt that he would be unable to perform the duties of the office, as he had been suffering from consumption for more than a year past. It was predicted at the time of his appointment that he could not hold the office for more than three months. His appointment dated from March 18, 1885.

Attempt to Burn a Railway Bridge.

BLACKSTONE, Mass., Oct. 21.—A daring attempt was made about 11 o'clock Tuesday morning to burn the covered bridge on the Providence & Worcester railroad, over the Blackstone river between Bridge and Millville. Kerosense oil had been poured on the bridge and then set on fire. The freight train from Worcester came along in time to save the bridge, and left two of the brakemen to guard it. The affair has caused great excitement at Bridge and Millville, as it was reported Monday in the latter place that an attempt would be made Monday evening to wreck the special train which conveys the new workmen in the rubber works to Bridge, where they board.

Prentice & Evenson distinctly state that Acker's English remedy has and does cure contracted consumption. Ask for circular. An entirely new medicine guaranteed

EDGERTON.

Some Remarks on the Wisconsin Tobacco.

Another, and far more plausible theory, accounting for the unusual state of the tobacco market is thus: Last year when the buying first commenced, the tobacco commanded prices ranging from 8 to 12c according to quality. But, little tobacco was bought at that price before a Jewish syndicate came into the field, and being confident that there was money in the Wisconsin crop at 15c, began to buy at that rate. A great many of the local buyers ceased buying, saying that no money could be made on the crop at that price, and there are not a few local buyers who did not buy a case last year for that reason.

The Jews, seeing the local buyers rather diffident, commenced buying with renewed vigor in hopes of being able to control the market. How well they succeeded is now to be seen. Of the '85 crop in Wisconsin over two thirds is held by this syndicate, who are now trying to dictate the price, which they have done, and set it so high that manufacturers cannot afford to buy Wisconsin tobacco and so resort to Pennsylvania and Connecticut tobaccos, as being more easily obtained.

How long they will hold firm in their prices cannot be determined but the longer they hold the '84 crop at present prices the worse it will be for the present crop.

In the opinion of a prominent local buyer, "If the '84 crop is not sold by next spring it will have a very depreciating effect upon the '85 crop.

The primal cause is this—the '84 crop was bought for more than it was worth.

Another result of the extravagant prices paid last year is making itself manifest by the incessant demand for money. When land began to pay $150 to $200 an acre, many lost their heads and became 'rattled' over what seemed to them to be a glorious prospect for the future, a sort of millenium for the tobacco farmer, and laid themselves out on improvements and similar expenditures for contingencies, expecting to be amply reimbursed by the sale of this year's crop, which according to their calculations should occur about now. For some time they have been sustaining their empty purses on glorious anticipations which now seem doomed to fail.

W. W. Hall, M. D., the editor of the Journal of Health published in New York, and a recognized authority on medical subjects, has the following to say of medicines used for coughs:

"The remedies for coughs, colds and consumption are innumerable, the combinations of ingredients are infinite; but if the reader is observant, he will find not one in a hundred will there be, which does not contain Opium in the form of Paregoric, Laudanum or Morphia, producing every year water on the brain in multitudes of children and apoplexies, or ruinous results to the digestive organs of adults. Intelligent druggists know that all medicines sold for coughs, colds, consumption, and tickling in the throat, contain Opium in some form or other. They repress the cough, but do not eradicate it; hence the first purchase paves the way for a second or third, and as it is the essential nature of Opium to close up, to deaden the sensibilities—constipation is induced, and becomes the immediate cause of three-fourths of all ordinary ailments, such as headache, neuralgia, dyspepsia and piles."

We give our positive guarantee that COLLIN'S CHERRY COUGH CURE contains no Chloroform, Tartar Emetic, preparations of Opium, or other Narcotic, and may be administered to children with perfect safety. Unlike the Opium Cough Medicines generally sold, which lend but momentary relief at the expense of enfeebling the patient, it is a remedy that does not dry up a cough and leave the disease behind it, but strikes directly at the cause; carries off all the phlegm accumulated in the Lungs and Throat, and heals them.
